Fire Someone Today: Entrepreneurial Lessons from the Frontline

Presentation and discussion with Bob Pritchett, local business owner, speaker and author of Fire Someone Today, And Other Surprising Tactics for Making your Business a Success.

Cost: $25.00

Includes a copy of Bob's book, Fire Someone Today, And Other Surprising Tactics for Making Your Business a Success.

Featuring Bob Pritchett, local entrepreneur, author and speaker

A third-generation entrepreneur, Bob started his first business at age six. In high school, he ran a software company that sold to the Fortune 500. At age 19, he left university to join Microsoft as one of its youngest program managers. In 1992, Bob co-founded Logos Research Systems, Inc., an electronic publisher of reference and scholarly works. Logos offers over 8,000 titles from 130 publishers to half a million users worldwide.

In addition to serving as President/CEO of Logos, Bob speaks regularly at industry conferences and to academic groups. A 2005 winner of the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year award, Bob was named one of the Puget Sound Business Journal's 40 Under 40, and is the author of Fire Someone Today, And Other Surprising Tactics for Making Your Business a Success.

Space is limited for this event. Please return the enclosed registration form with payment to hold your seat and reserve your copy of the book.
